SECTION 1: BACKGROUND:

The Liberia YMCA was founded in 1881 in Harper, Maryland County. YMCA of Liberia is a non-for-profit membership-based organization specialized in youth development for over a century with proof of holistic youth development work in local communities and a national presence. YMCA of Liberia is also a part of a continental and global YMCA family for shared learning and support, with strong volunteer base of young people and professional practitioners serving on boards and community steering groups

In June 2023, the YMCA of Liberia was awarded a grant to be used exclusively for the implementation of the project during the period from June 2023 to May 2026 for the activity period within sixteen project locations across nine counties in Liberia. The three-year project is funded by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA) and aims to create safe spaces where young people are active contributors to sustaining peace in Liberia through community dialogues and engagement, youth peace clubs and Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanisms. The PSICD project strengthens processes of reconciliation and conflict resolution in Liberia at individual, family, community and institutional / local governmental levels.

The project has the goal of ‘facilitating a process wherein community members can address the underlying causes of conflict and trust, regain dignity and enable trust, reduce social and mental distress by giving new and adequate meaning to conflicts caused by religion, land or lack of trust in project locations. YMCA focused on two intermediate results:

- Outcome 1: Improved citizen participation and positive youth engagement with local authorities and community members in resolving disputes for increased social cohesion.
- Outcome 2: A peaceful and safe school environment is established for students to reach their full potential and be empowered to serve as agents of change, ensuring transformation from subjects to citizens:
- Outcome 3: Improved interpersonal relations, conflict mitigation skills and social cohesion among young people who are out of school to achieve their full potentials and be agents of change.
- Outcome 4: Improved capacity of YMCA to respond to the needs of young people and be socially relevant in the communities she serves.
