The Department of Fiscal Affairs is responsible for all fiscal matters relating to Expenditure and Revenue as well as Tax Policy. With the establishment of a semi-autonomous Revenue Authority, the Department of Fiscal Affairs deals with revenue and tax policy issues, including framing of tax laws and regulations, role of taxation and tax exemptions in the broader economic and development policy framework, and issues relating to non-tax revenue. The Department further deals with public expenditure issues ranging from framing of financial rules and regulations to matters pertaining to government accounting.

The Technical Focal Point (TFP) will promote fiscal discipline by ensuring that public expenditures align with approved budgets and deliver value for money. The TFP is the guardian of expenditure efficiency, transparency, and compliance. The TFP will advance the Ministry's fiscal reform objectives by supporting the development of sound revenue mobilization strategies, expenditure controls, and fiscal sustainability frameworks that align with medium- and long-term national goals. The TFP will provide expert support in the areas of fiscal policy, budget management, public finance management, and economic forecasting.
